

Announcing a New Home for the C.G. Jung Society of Colorado!

In February 2015,
we are relocating
to a new venue,
the Park Hill
Congregational Church (U.C.C.) at 2600 Leyden
Street in Denver.

This welcoming facility offers plenty of parking along wide and well-lit streets. The building has no steps and is easily accessible to all. It is located in a very safe and quiet part of the Park Hill neighborhood, located near or connecting to most of Denver's major thoroughfares. Join us!

From BOULDER, take Highway 36 to Quebec Street, then go south to 26th Avenue and west to Leyden Street.

From COLORADO SPRINGS, take I-25 to Colorado Boulevard north to 26th Avenue, then east to Leyden... OR even take I-225 north to I-70 west, then go to Quebec Street south to 26th Avenue and west to Leyden Street.

In DENVER, take 6th Avenue, Montview Boulevard, or Martin Luther King Boulevard to connect east or west to Quebec Street, Monaco Parkway, or Leyden Street, which all run north and south.

The entrance to the sanctuary is on Leyden Street, just north of the playground (as shown in the photo above).
